Morrison Cohen LLP Announces Jason P. Gottlieb Joins Firm as Partner

New York, March 28, 2016 – Morrison Cohen LLP announced today that Jason P. Gottlieb has joined the firm as a partner in the firm's Business Litigation Department.

Jason's practice focuses on business litigation and arbitration involving securities, financial products, financial markets, real estate and intellectual property. His experience includes litigation and regulatory work relating to high-frequency trading, commodities futures markets and structured finance. He has represented major international manufacturing and trading companies, banks, hedge funds, pharmaceutical companies, private equity funds, and individuals.

Jason speaks widely on financial markets litigation and is a frequent author of articles on various topics in law and politics.

Before joining Morrison Cohen, Jason was counsel in the litigation group at Curtis, Mallet-Prevost, Colt & Mosle LLP.

"Jason is highly regarded for his strategic and commercial insights, as well as his ability to successfully navigate a wide variety of financial and commercial disputes and other matters in numerous litigation, arbitration and mediation forums," Morrison Cohen Chairman David Scherl said. "He has intimate knowledge and familiarity with the numerous and evolving litigation and regulatory challenges facing financial services providers and other businesses, and is able to employ that knowledge to best protect their business interests."
