Morrison Cohen LLP Announces New Deputy Managing Partners

New York, January 29, 2018 – Morrison Cohen LLP today announced that Peter K. Anglum was named as the Deputy Managing Partner-Finance and Kristin T. Roy was named as the Deputy Managing Partner-Operations.

Peter, a partner in Morrison Cohen’s Corporate Department, will take on the role of Deputy Managing Partner-Finance from Kristin, who will take on the role of Deputy Managing Partner-Operations.

Kristin is taking over the position of Deputy Managing Partner-Operations from Mary E. Flynn, who will be focusing on her litigation practice.

“We congratulate and thank Peter and Kristin for taking on these new responsibilities. And also thank Mary for her management role at the firm. She has set the standard for all of us to follow. Her contribution to the firm over the past 20 years is immeasurable,” Morrison Cohen Chairman David Scherl said.

“Morrison Cohen is a meritocracy that is committed both to recognizing the value contributed by each of its talented professionals, and to cultivating a professional environment that encompasses a broad diversity of backgrounds, perspectives and experiences,” Scherl added.

Peter is a partner in Morrison Cohen’s Corporate Department where his practice focuses on mergers and acquisitions, private equity and venture capital transactions, private investment funds, commercial lending and finance, and general company representation. He advises clients with equity and asset acquisitions in both financial and strategic investments, and in the disposition of such investments pursuant to a variety of exit strategies.

Kristin is partner in the firm’s Business Litigation Department. She is a trial and appellate lawyer with a wide range of experience in antitrust, financial instrument, real estate, contract, and partnership disputes, and employment and trade dress matters. She represents and counsels publicly traded REITs, private equity firms, financial institutions, real estate developers, health-care institutions, family-offices, lenders and high-net worth individuals.
